

Dear Sir,

I am excited to submit my application for the Software Engineering Intern role at Optimizely, as advertised on LinkedIn. With my qualifications outlined in the attached resume, I am confident in my ability to use technical skills and soft skills and contribute significantly to your team's success.

This opportunity aligns perfectly with my professional goals, and I am eager to discuss how I can leverage my expertise to drive results and be a valuable asset to Optimizely.

Thank you for considering my application, and I look forward to the opportunity to further explore my candidacy.

Best regards,

Mohammad Ajij
